Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statements (IDS) submitted on 1/22/04 and 1/26/04 have been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The claimed invention requires each of the at least two scanning beam focusing mechanisms satisfying the inequality $\Delta L \cos \alpha < R/2$ (claims 1, 4, 7, 10, 13, 16); however, the specification fails to adequately teach how to make the scanning beam focusing mechanisms which satisfy the inequality. There are no numerical data, i.e. radius of curvature of each surface of each lens/mirror, the refractive index of each lens/mirror, the spacings between optical elements, etc., provided for at least a scanning beam focusing mechanisms nor a single example to show that the scanning beam focusing mechanisms are configured to satisfy the claimed inequality. What are the values of ΔL and α that are obtained from the scanning beam focusing mechanisms? The values of ΔL and α are dependent on the optical property/characteristics and the arrangement of the scanning beam focusing mechanisms in the optical scanning apparatus. Without the numerical data provided for the scanning beam focusing mechanisms, how can one make the scanning beam focusing mechanisms which satisfy the claimed inequality without undue experimentation?

Applicant has traversed the rejection by explaining how to obtain the parameters ΔL , α , and R; however, there are not disclosed the values or ranges of at least ΔL and α so that one skilled in the art can obtain the scanning beam focusing mechanisms which satisfy the inequality without undue experimentation.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
